

UNIVERSITY OF NAIROBI

THE 6TH JOURNAL PUBLISHING SEMINAR

DATE: 31st August & 1st September 2017

Journal Publishing For Post-Graduate Students, Researchers and Academicians

Globally, academicians and postgraduate students are experiencing increased pressure to publish their research work in scholarly journals than in previous times. Recently, the Commission for University Education (CUE), Kenya, issued a directive requiring postgraduate students to publish articles from their thesis in peer-reviewed journals before they are allowed to graduate. A recent survey in April 2017 by the Kenya Institute of Management (KIM) shows that over 80% of these students are idea-less on the process and requirements for publishing in peer-reviewed journals and would be interested in a workshop that offers the opportunity to hone their skills in scholarly publishing.

In this regards, The Kenya Institute of Management (KIM) in collaboration with University of Nairobi (UoN) and world- leading publishing institution; SAGE and Emerald wishes to invite you to this Journal Publishing Seminar scheduled to happen in Nairobi ,KICD Centre, on 31st August & 1st September 2017.
